SETTING GLOBAL GOALS

In the face of global resource scarcity, environmental and climate pressures, social inequality, the United Nations (UN) adopted the 2030 Agenda in 2015 with its 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

- The special feature of the UN's 2030 Agenda is the combination of social, economic and environmental sustainability
- The agenda emphasizes global and local partnerships
- The SDGs (Sustainable Development Goals) affect all countries and levels – cities have a central role to play in implementing the global 2030 Agenda

For Stuttgart, the 2030 Agenda means:

- Implementing global sustainability goals locally
- Building on the openness, diversity, internationality and commitment in Stuttgart
- Bringing together stakeholders from business, academia, civil society and public sector to address areas of citizens' lives:
 - ◆ Social affairs
 - ◆ Health
 - ◆ Food & Nutrition
 - ◆ Education
 - ◆ Social cohesion
 - ◆ Climate
 - ◆ Mobility
 - ◆ Energy
 - ◆ Environment
 - ◆ Partnerships
 - ◆ Work
 - ◆ Living
 - ◆ Consumption
 - ◆ Human Rights
 - ◆ Peace
